

Fashion-Forward Boutiques to Present 2nd Annual “Spring Fling” Fashion Show At Quarry Ponds Town Center in Granite Bay

Scheduled for Friday, April 18th, Event to Benefit WIND Youth Services

GRANITE BAY, Calif. (March 27, 2008) – Working in collaboration, five independently-owned and fashion-forward boutiques – Dara Denim, Dionna K Boutique, NAT Boutique, Rima and Silver Spoon – will present the 2nd Annual “Spring Fling” Fashion Show on Friday, April 18th at 6:30 p.m. This much-anticipated special event will take place outdoors at Quarry Ponds Town Center in Granite Bay on a stage that overlooks a magnificent waterfront view. Free to the public, 15% of all proceeds from a special shopping blitz immediately following the fashion show will benefit WIND Youth Services, a Sacramento-based non-profit agency that provides social services and emergency shelter for homeless youths ages 12 to 21.

Wearing the latest head-to-toe spring fashions, local models will hit the runway to showcase the latest spring clothing and accessories for men, women and children.

“Based on last year and our exciting plans for this year, our annual spring fashion show is definitely a ‘must-see’ event,” said Jessica Horton, owner of Dara Denim and one of the fashion show coordinators. “Also, we’ve got a number of style surprises in store for this fun and high-energy evening.”

Space is limited and special advance seating is available by calling 916-746-0222. All five boutiques can be found in the unique and picturesque Quarry Ponds Town Center, located at 5550 Douglas Blvd. (between Sierra College Blvd. and Barton Road) in Granite Bay. More information about the event, individual boutiques or the center is available at www.quarryponds.com.
